

A map of Calvert Island, which is a large, irregularly shaped island in a body of water. The island is primarily yellow, while the surrounding water is dark blue. Two light blue circles are placed on the island, and one solid black circle is located on the eastern coast. The entire map is framed by a thick blue border.

Calvert Island

10 km